Mid-Atlantic PA State Archives Tour
Pennsylvania State Archives
1681 N. Sixth St.
Harrisburg, PA 17102

10:00 AM - 04:00 PM EST

The Mid-Atlantic Chapter of APG is hosting a behind-the-scenes tour of the new Pennsylvania State Archives facility on Saturday, 20 July, and we would love for you to join us. The day will start with a 10 a.m. brunch meet-up with other APG professionals at the Front Street Diner in Harrisburg. By 11 we'll be at the archives, where we'll meet with archivist Brett Reigh. Brett will share the history of the archives, and discuss the numerous records that they maintain. He'll then take us on a tour of parts of the building not generally open to the public. By 1 p.m., we'll be back in the main research area, where you'll be able to do your own research til 4 p.m. if desired. Let us know if you have any questions, or sign up to attend on Eventbrite. The tour is free, but space is limited. We may schedule another session if needed. Need more information? Email MidAtlanticAPG@gmail.com.

DEI New Voices: Pacific Islander Genealogy & Perspectives

08:00 PM - 09:30 PM EST

APG is excited to announce the first webinar in our "DEI New Voices" series for members. Join us on Wednesday, 24 July 2024 from 8:00–9:30 p.m. EDT for Pacific Islander Genealogy & Perspectives with Miyamoto Jensen, sponsored by the APG Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Committee. This event is open to APG members only.

This presentation will delve into the unique aspects of Pacific Islander genealogy, tracing ancestral roots and understanding cultural narratives. We will discuss the traditional methods used to preserve and pass down family histories and examine the modern tools and techniques enhancing genealogical research today. Additionally, the presentation will highlight the perspectives of Pacific Islanders on identity, community, and the importance of cultural preservation in the face of globalization. Whether you are of Pacific Islander descent or simply interested in learning more about these vibrant cultures, this presentation promises to offer valuable knowledge and a deeper appreciation of the Pacific Islander experience.

- With the explosion of virtual programs, societies presenting genealogy topics have a greatly expanded pool of speakers to choose from. No longer is a society restricted to those who can travel to a local venue. But this development brings challenges as well: How do you find speakers? How do you know they will show up? How do you select relevant topics? How do advertise your speakers? How do you avoid technical glitches? Our panel of three program chairs will share their expertise on these and other topics.*
